Romeo and Juliet Writing Assignment

Creative Writing: Choose one of creative assignments and respond creatively.

1. Write a letter to Romeo or Juliet (or both) explaining how they should deal with their situation. Make sure you give specific reasons to support why you feel so strongly about the course of action you think they should take. Present a scenario of what may happen if they don't follow your advice or explain a few possible outcomes if they follow your advice. Write in the form of a letter including dates, names, and supporting evidence from the plot whenever possible. (approx. 3 paragraphs)

2. According to Benvolio, Tybalt has sent a threatening letter to Romeo's home challenging him to a duel. Imagine you are Tybalt and write the challenge that you will send (approx. 3 paragraphs). Include the following details:

- * Why you want to fight
- * Where you want to fight
- * When you want to fight
- * What weapons you want to fight with
- * Show off about your fighting ability and brag about winning
- * Include insults to Romeo

> In both of the selections, choose some important stylistic elements (i.e., metaphors, similes, imagery, hyperbole, personification, allusions etc.) to enhance your writing.

> Also, include some Elizabethan English for authenticity.
